

An applied investigation technology centre, with about 80 staff members, dedicated to R&D in new technologies for communication, visualization and interaction, has openings for

Senior Software Engineer

Requirements:

- Graduation in software engineering or equivalent.
- Advanced skills in C++ and Object Oriented Programming.
- Experience with version control environments (cvs, svn).
- Knowledge of configuration management tools (CMake).
- Advanced knowledge of development environments in Linux and Windows.
- Minimum 2 years programming experience in collaborative projects.
- Experience in medical imaging.
- Experience with VTK, ITK.

Offer:

- To be linked to a technological centre with over 80 people, important national and international partners, and constant challenges and growth capacity.
- Opportunity for advancement in an international applied investigation environment, leader in the multimedia technologies and computer graphics sector.